Fortside Brewing - Vancouver - Table #31

1) Orange Whip

Sometimes you just need an Orange Whip. Doesn’t matter if you’re at the end of an epic police chase or if you’re just at the end of the bar, order an Orange Whip (or better yet three Orange Whips). This delightfully approachable yet complex hazy sings an eloquent and deep tune, rooted in citrus and tropical hop flavors but is expansive in it’s full throated and soulfully creamy mouthfeel. Brash but nonetheless smooth, Orange Whip predicates a juicy hipness not bound by convention or style, neither hype nor hysteria, just smooth and sultry deliciousness that borders on the criminal.

2) Fortside Pilsner
Nobody really likes rough, let’s be honest. When it comes to beer, even rough around the edges is too much. With this in mind, we crafted an authentic German-style Pilsner to be the epitome and the culmination of SMOOOOOOOOOTH. Aromas of refined European pilsner malt and floral and spicy German hops flow effortlessly into the olfactory, wafting through the air like a silky jazz flute riff. Bright and refreshing flavors glide over the tongue, led by the elegant tones of noble German Hallertau Mittelfruh hops and traditionally floor malted European pilsner malt. When life forces you to make a decision and proceed forward, heed this advice: don’t be harsh, don’t be coarse, don’t be rough. Be smooth.

3) Crispy Regazzo
Bello Uomo!! This handsome beer is brewed in the fashion of new-style Italian pilsners, which is to say that it’s lightly dry hopped and emphatically refreshing. A smooth pilsner base serves as the perfect canvas for a combo of German noble hops, Hallertau Mittelfruh and Saphir, to combine with a squeeze of lemon juice to paint a masterpiece of exceptional depth and nuance. Nonetheless, honoring its Pilsner heritage, Crispy Ragazzo is also, umm, hella crispy. So sit back, savor, and drink it all in. La vita e’ bella!

4) The Pale GOAT
The GOAT, long a symbol of traditionally brewed bock lagerbiers, has recently come to mean something seemingly different via acronymic adaptation. This beer, however, proves these two meanings are NOT mutually exclusive. A historically crafted beer with elite and universal staying power, this hugely malty and satisfying bock strives to rank amongst the greats, and succeeds. A pale copper colored hue understates the ass kicking malt power of this beer, with a depth of caramelly melanoidins that leaves most beers ruefully shaking their heads as the Pale GOAT blows them off the bartop. With just enough bitterness to balance and an ultra smooth and clean lager profile in spite of the strength, this beer has it all- and isn’t shy about letting you know.

5) Baby Come Bock
Every once in a while a perfect union is stumbled upon, and serendipity’s sublime smile smooths the soul and satiates the body. After the marriage is consummated, it can be all but impossible to let that feeling go. You’ll find yourself yearning deeply for that sense of fullness and totality that only true love can bring. Lucky for you, Fortside crafted Baby Come Bock, a chocolate cherry dark lager whose smoothness, depth, and lusciousness is so mind blowing, it will complete you. Remember, love is where you find it. Like in this can.

6) Bramble Bomb
Bramble Bomb is, well, the bomb. Exploding with a bouquet of bright blackberries and lively tartness, this special brew features 400 pounds of juicy blackberries. A touch of clean malt and a smidgen of jammy sweetness balances the all consuming eruption of flavor, engulfing the senses before settling into a bright, clean, and reincarnating finish.

7) Latest Experimental IPA
Fermented with our house wine yeast strain and a bucket of grape skins, this IPA is everything that you don't get to try all the time. And of course we dry-hopped it.

8) 2021 BBA Night King
That's what she said...

9) Rosé Gone Wild
Admit it- sometimes you just want something that’s crushable and refreshing and pink. Now there’s a way to do that without sacrificing nuance and artisan production- Rosé Gone Wild! A gluten reduced and craftily concocted hybrid wine/beer that drinks more like a Rosé Spritzer -or, if you prefer, a delightfully complex and fruity hard seltzer- Rosé Gone Wild greets the drinker with a fine effervescence that explodes with aromas of blackberry and pink peppercorn.
The first sip dances with flavors of melon, meyer lemon, and a light and refreshing tannic character that confirms the presence of wine grapes, if you weren’t already convinced by the gorgeous blush color. Finishing super clean and light bodied, this splurge of flavor engulfs the senses before disappearing into clean and pure refreshment. You’ll go “aaahhhhhhh” without even meaning to, and wonder why you’ve been looking elsewhere for your thirst quenching needs. But before you can answer your own question, you’ll have taken the next sip and dove right back into the purifying pink wave of revitalization.

Beer Descriptions

1. Old Madrona Imperial Red (ABV 8.3% / IBU 80) (FRI)
   - Undefined by style guidelines, this exceptionally smooth strong ale has a full malt and hop body. It’s ruby red color is reminiscent of the Madrona tree’s bark. Dried fruit aromas lead the way to a palate of a strong, sweet, and malty beer that is dangerously drinkable. A full, and very round mouthfeel is brightened up by the Zythos hops. Boozy, delicious, and a nice sipper; but not to be messed with!

2. Feel the Burn - Chili Blonde Ale (ABV 5.8% / IBU 15) (FRI)
   - Because we still feel Bernie was the best candidate, this beer keeps coming back by popular demand. Freshly roasted Jalapeño, Habanero, Serrano, Anaheim, and...
Poblano go into the boil for a pleasant aroma, while adding bunches of all the different kinds of spicy peppers we could find at the market into the dry hop for a spicy finish. We’re still feelin’ the Bern.

3) White Cap - American Whit (ABV 5.8% / IBU 18) (SAT)

This American take on a traditional Belgian Wit has the light wheat body with orange and coriander notes. Using an excessive amount of fresh oranges, this light beer helps you stay hydrated through the hot summer days.

4) Bouy Bay ISA (ABV 5.5% / IBU 60) (SAT)

This seasonal Session IPA is bright and refreshing with just a little lower alcohol content making it an easy summer time drinker.

5) Sunrise Amber (ABV 6% / IBU 35) (SUN)

Early mornings in the brewery mean we often witness the spectrum of color from the beautiful island sunrises over Mt. Baker. Like the morning sky, this beer is a blend of amber and red. With nutty aromas and flavors, the favorite is a smooth, sweet awakening that finishes dry.

6) Elwha Rock IPA (ABV 6.3% / IBU 100) (SUN)

Floral, citrusy, earthy with a crisp finish. Bright and zippy hop presence that crashes into a grounded earthy body. The malt foundation allows the high IBU an equal standing in this well balanced, classic Pacific Northwest style India Pale Ale.

This is Seattle after all. Gotta keep it dank as hell, but, you know, approachable.
